Re: Right to Know Request

Dear Sir or Madam:

Thank you for your request for information pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right-To-Know law (the "Act").

By request dated October 1, 2018, you requested records that dealt with subjects such as US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

After conducting a good faith search of the Agency's files and inquiring with relevant Agency personnel, I have made the determination such documents do not exist within the Agency's possession, custody or control.

You have a right to appeal the denial of information in writing to the Office of Open Records, Commonwealth Keystone Building, 400 North Street, 4th Floor, Harrisburg, PA 17120.

If you choose to file an appeal, you must do so within 15 business days of the mailing date of the agency's response, as outlined in Section 1101 of the Act. Please note that a copy of your original Right-to-Know request and this denial letter must be included when filing an appeal. The law also requires that you state the reasons why the record is a public record and address the reasons the Agency denies your request. Visit the Office of Open Records website at <http://openrecords.state.pa.us> for further information on filing an appeal. If you have further questions, please call me. Please be advised that this correspondence will serve to close this record with our office as permitted by law.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Bonnie Cross".

Bonnie Cross,
Open Records Officer
