1719 North Broad Street, Room 411
Philadelphia, PA 19122

Dear Arik Davidson,
On 10/2/2018 12:14 PM, you submitted RTK-00529 with the following request;
Dear Mr. Brennan:

The Sheller Center for Social Justice ("Center") at Temple University requests, pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right to Know Law, 65 P.S. § 67.101 et seq., the following records:

Any record, reports, policies, agreements, correspondence, forms, or documents from 2015 to present reflecting:

- 1. Questions asked of individuals entering or in Northampton County Prison about their immigration status, national origin, or country of birth.*
- 2. Sharing of information with ICE about individuals in Northampton County Prison (e.g., names, date of birth, immigration status, national origin, country of birth).*
- 3. Sharing of access with ICE to incident reports, booking records, or databases with information about individuals in Northampton County Prison.*
- 4. Presence of ICE officials in Northampton County Prison (including formal or informal agreements to interview individuals in the prison's custody).*
- 5. Number or times ICE officials visit Northampton County Prison to talk to individuals in custody at the prison.*
- 6. Transferring individuals from the custody of Northampton County Prison to ICE custody.*

Your right to know request as amended is granted in part and denied in part. The responsive records are attached. Personal information such as social security numbers and DOBs have been redacted. Your request is denied to the extent it is not sufficiently specific or requests information as opposed to records. The documents include the form questions asked, questions to all commitments, all commitments since October 2017 and specific releases since 2015. We expected to have a sign in book, but were advised that ICE had not used the same and production would not disclose the information requested. Additionally, please note that in the course of redaction we were able to provide a copy that did not need to be printed and, as such, no charges are being made to fill this request.

You have the right to appeal this denial of access to the requested information. An appeal must be made in writing to within fifteen (15) business days of the mailing date of this letter.

By this letter, we consider the agency's obligation to honor your request under the RTKL to be fully fulfilled.

Respectfully,

Timothy P. Brennan, Esq.

ARRESTING A NON-U.S. CITIZEN

Consular Notification Process

IN ALL CASES:

- Do not inform consulate about detainee's refugee or asylum status.
- Detainee may communicate with consular officer and may request consular access at any time (whether previously declined or not).
- Consular officers may have access to detainee regardless of whether detainee requests it. Even if detainee does not want to be visited, consular officers may still have one face-to-face visit.

¹Notification is not mandatory in the case of persons who carry "Republic of China" passports issued by Taiwan. Such persons should be informed without delay that the nearest office of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office ("TECRO"), the unofficial entity representing Taiwan's interests in the United States, can be notified at their request. TECRO's offices are listed on pages 126-127; see also footnote 128 on page 66.

²Mandatory only for foreign nationals who are not lawful permanent residents in the United States (i.e., "green card" holders). Otherwise, upon the national's request. See the question "But since 'green card' holders are living in the United States permanently, why can't I ignore consular notification requirements for them?" at page 12; see also footnote 18 on page 43.

³The bilateral consular convention between the United States and the United Kingdom applies to British nationals from Great Britain (England, Wales, and Scotland); Northern Ireland; the Crown Dependencies of Jersey, Guernsey, and the Isle of Man; and the British Overseas Territories, including Anguilla, Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, Gibraltar, Montserrat, and the Turks and Caicos Islands, along with other island territories. Residents of the Overseas Territories may be traveling on a passport issued by the territory with no indication that the territory is British. Nevertheless, for them and all others from a British possession listed above, consular notification and access should be provided to the nearest U.K. consulate. For advice on how to ascertain whether an arrested or detained person is a British national, see the question "What about British nationals" on page 24. For the U.S.-U.K. convention, see footnote 30 on page 47.

Statement 1:

For All Foreign Nationals Except Those from "Mandatory Notification" Countries

As a non-U.S. citizen who is being arrested or detained, you may request that we notify your country's consular officers here in the United States of your situation. You may also communicate with your consular officers. A consular officer may be able to help you obtain legal representation, and may contact your family and visit you in detention, among other things. If you want us to notify your consular officers, you can request this notification now, or at any time in the future. Do you want us to notify your consular officers at this time?

CONSULATE CONTACT INFORMATION

SUBJECT TO CHANGE — FOR LATEST, VISIT WWW.TRAVEL.STATE.GOV/CONSULARNOTIFICATION

In the pages that follow you will find the name of each country in the world along with the names of certain other jurisdictions. Accompanying the names are the telephone and fax numbers of that country's embassy in Washington, D.C., as available to the Department of State in October 2009. Due to consulates opening, closing, and changing their contact information, this list is in constant flux, and the Department therefore recommends that you check the website www.travel.state.gov/consularnotification for the most up-to-date contact information. If in attempting contact with an embassy or consulate you discover that corrections need to be made to this list, please contact the Department's Bureau of Consular Affairs Office of Policy Coordination and Public Affairs at (202) 647-4415, by fax at (202) 736-7559, or send an email to consnot@state.gov.

For countries with consulates in other U.S. cities, the name of the city also appears, along with the consulate's telephone and fax. For countries without an embassy or consulate in the United States, the contact information of their United Nations mission in New York appears. Where required, you should notify the consulate nearest the place of arrest or detention.

In rare cases, you may arrest or detain someone carrying a passport bearing the name of a country that no longer exists, or the name of a territory along with the name of a country that has jurisdiction over the territory (e.g., Hong Kong and China). For advice on who to contact in such cases, see the question "How do I figure out what country the foreign national is from, so that I know which consulate to notify? What if the national's passport is from a country that no longer exists?" on page 23.
