

RESOURCES & SERVICES FOR NEW STUDENTS

TEMPLE LAW LIBRARY

*Whether you're finding the way to class or diving into legal research – it's all new.
The library can help – reach out to us.*

Online Legal Research Help

Don't know where to start your research? Come see us! We can help you navigate Westlaw, Lexis Advance, Bloomberg Law, and other specialized research services.

Research Consultations

Meet with a librarian to get legal research help. We can cover issues such as source selection, database demonstrations, creating a research plan, and more. Contact us at tulawlib@temple.edu to schedule a session.

Library Tours

Learn more about library services by taking a 20-minute tour. Sign up at the library website: law.temple.edu/library.

Course Reserves

Your casebooks and a variety of study aids are available for three-hour checkout at the Circulation Desk. Use reserve lists organized by instructor, course, or book title to find a call number for the book you need, and we will retrieve it for you.

Tech Tools

Headphones, USB drives, and select laptop and phone chargers are available for three-hour checkout at the Circulation Desk.

Document Scanning

Digitize and save documents to your email, phone, or a USB drive with the KIC Scanner. Find the scanner adjacent to the Circulation Desk in the third floor reading room.

Library Search

Discover resources in all Temple libraries - books, journal articles, library research guides, and more - using Library Search at library.temple.edu.

Group Study Room

Working on a group project? Meet together in the group study room on the fourth floor. Reserve the room using the link on the library website: law.temple.edu/library.
