

Head Start to the American Legal System: Comparative Legal Studies in Rome

JUNE 19 - JUNE 21, 2025

HYBRID COURSE

Register for a dynamic three-day course hosted by Temple University Beasley School of Law in collaboration with Università degli Studi Guglielmo Marconi. This course bridges common law and civil law traditions and provides a foundational understanding of the American legal system, ideal for students and professionals exploring global legal practice. Taught by faculty from both institutions, the course is available in person or online.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

DAY 1
JUNE 19
MARCONI UNIVERSITY

3:00 PM – 7:00 PM -Lectures

- “US legal education, law degrees, and the international legal profession”
- “Criminal Procedure and the Role of Legal Professionals in Italy, the US, and the UK: A Comparative Perspective”
- “Global legal practice skills in Italy and abroad”

DAY 2
JUNE 20
TEMPLE ROME

3:00 PM – 7:00 PM - Lectures

- “Sources of US law, US legal history and the judicial system”
- “Common Law Legal Analysis Part 1”
- “EU-US international commercial transactions and dispute resolution”

7:00 PM -Aperitivo
(in-person participants)

DAY 3
JUNE 21
TEMPLE ROME

10:00 AM – 2:00 PM -Lectures

- “US bar exam requirements, law school study skills”
- “Common Law Legal Analysis Part 2”
- “Comparative civil law - common law reasoning”

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- ⚖️ Earn 1 credit toward Temple’s LL.M. for Foreign-Trained Lawyers
- ⚖️ LL.M. application fee waived
- ⚖️ English language test waiver for eligible applicants to LL.M. program
- ⚖️ Up to 25% tuition scholarship for qualified LL.M. candidates
- ⚖️ $500 scholarship for Temple’s 4-week Rome Summer Law Program

MORE INFORMATION

<https://tinyurl.com/TempleHeadStart>

REGISTRATION: FREE

Free to registered law students, law faculty & staff, and legal professionals.

Register
Now

