

In-House Clinic Name	Subject Matter	Faculty	Credits & Grading	Prerequisites	Time Commitment	Available Spots
Appellate Litigation Clinic	Representing low income litigants in immigration appeals (removal defense), prisoner civil rights litigation, and habeas proceedings in the Third Circuit as well as representing individuals in mortgage foreclosure, landlord tenant, and termination of parental rights appeals in the Pennsylvania Superior Court.	Professor Mary Levy	2 credits pass/fail clinic and 2 credit graded seminar	3L and 4LE students only	Avg. 10-12 hours/wk including seminar. Additional hours may be needed to prepare the appellate briefing	8
Community Lawyering Clinic	Litigation and transactional matters for people with severe illnesses, such as cancer and HIV, and people with severe disabilities.	Professor Spencer Rand	4 credit graded course	None	4 credit pass/fail. Adv. clinic can be added for 3 graded credits whether in the same semester or a later semester	8
Family Justice Clinic	Students will engage in advocacy in partnership and solidarity with families whose family stability or integrity has been impacted by state intervention, by providing individual legal advice and representation, and work on related projects that address systemic issues.	Professor Sarah Katz	3 credit pass / fail clinic & 2 credit graded seminar	Policing Families Seminar (or waiver)required. Certification and completion of Trial Ad & Evidence is preferred	Avg. of 14-18 hrs/wk for all work, 8-10 hrs/wk in office	8
Low Income Taxpayer Clinic (LITC)	Direct representation of taxpayers under IRS audit; those contesting or are unable to pay tax amount proposed by the IRS; and with cases before the U.S. Tax Court. Also includes education and outreach to lowincome individuals and those that speak English as a second language and systemic advocacy projects.	Professor Omeed Firouzi	4 credit graded course	None	Avg. 10-12 hours/wk including seminar	8
Social Justice Lawyering Clinic	Individual representation of low-income clients in civil cases affecting economic security (e.g., employment housing, consumer) and systemic advocacy projects in collaboration with community and legal organizations, on behalf of underserved communities (e.g., immigrant rights, workers' rights, access to justice).	Prof. Jennifer Lee and Prof. Len Rieser	4 credit pass/fail clinic and 2 credit graded seminar	Certification preferred but not required	Avg. of 20 hours/wk for all work	12