The George P. Williams III Memorial Award was originally established by the law firm of Schnader, Harrison, Segal & Lewis, the partners, associates and friends of the late George P. Williams III. Mr. Williams was a distinguished alumnus, class of 1944, who taught for 15 years at the School of Law. The fund was endowed in 2018 thanks to a generous gift from Mary Williams, and provides support to the faculty member chosen each year by the graduating class for excellence in teaching.

Order of the Coif

The following graduates have been elected to membership in the Order of the Coif, an honorary scholastic society aimed at encouraging excellence in legal education by fostering a spirit of careful study and recognizing law students who have attained a high grade of scholarship. These graduates are wearing the badge of membership in the Order, a piece of white cloth that was affixed to the wig of English barristers, replacing the close-fitting cap, or coif, worn by serjeants-at-law in medieval England.

Pledge of Professional Commitment

I understand that today I am joining an academic community and embarking on a professional career.

I pledge to respect the academic endeavor that I am about to undertake, and to uphold the honor and integrity of the legal profession that I seek to enter.

I will conduct my academic, professional, and personal life with honesty, dignity, and care, honoring the values and standards that are expressed in the rules governing Temple Law School and that are shared by the legal profession.

I will treat all of my colleagues—students, staff, and faculty—with fairness and respect, even in disagreement.

I will remember that my actions reflect not only on me, but also on Temple Law School and on the legal profession.

I understand that one of the many privileges of the legal profession is the opportunity to serve others, and I commit myself to seeking equal justice for all.

I take this pledge freely and upon my honor.

Congratulations to the Temple University Beasley School of Law, Class of 2021
