

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY BEASLEY SCHOOL OF LAW 2021-2022 PRACTICUM AGREEMENT

---

Temple Law School values experiential learning. The following requirements have been developed to ensure high academic standards in our field placement programs. We ask that each field placement supervisor, student, and supervising full time faculty member review and acknowledge agreement to follow these requirements. Students should return this form to the Law School Office of Student Affairs (via email to Ms. Kathy Wilson: kilson@temple.edu) before 12:00 pm on August 20, 2021 for the Fall 2021 semester, and January 7, 2022 for the Spring 2022 semester (Students, Field Placement Supervisors, and Faculty Supervisors may type their name in lieu of a hand-written signature and return the form electronically.)

FIELD PLACEMENT SUPERVISOR RESPONSIBILITIES

12. The field placement agrees to designate at least one licensed attorney or other individual otherwise qualified to supervise the student.
13. The field placement supervisor will provide on-going supervision, including clear assignment of work and responsibility, reasonable accessibility for the student to ask questions and clarify issues, and timely feedback on performance or work product that includes what the student did well, what needs to be improved, and any issues of professionalism that the student should address.
14. The field placement supervisor agrees to provide the student with challenging, varied, and increasingly complex legal projects that allow the student to develop legal skills, judgment, and problem-solving abilities.
15. The field placement supervisor agrees to select assignments that include research and writing, drafting documents and/or pleadings; interviewing clients and witnesses; and/or participating in conferences, negotiations or mediations. Students may observe meetings, depositions, or court proceedings, usually where the student is involved in the preparation of the case, but these observations should not be for more than twenty percent of the student's hours.
16. The field placement supervisor agrees to include training in legal doctrine, ethics, and skills.
17. The field placement supervisor agrees to provide multiple opportunities to perform legal tasks.
18. The field placement supervisor agrees to include opportunities to participate in the decision making process concerning matters on which they are working and provide an opportunity to develop communication skills through oral presentations to clients or other lawyers and staff.
19. The field placement supervisor agrees to provide the participating student with an opportunity for self- evaluation and to provide the student with a written evaluation twice during the semester (midsemester and at the semester's conclusion). The student will provide a form to assist in this process.
20. The field placement supervisor acknowledges review of the Temple Law School's Field Placement Supervisor Handbook which includes Temple Law School's Statement of Educational Objectives, Goals and Methods and Training Materials.
21. The field placement agrees to maintain regular contact with the supervising Law School faculty member.

22. The field placement agrees to allow the student to submit examples of redacted written work product to the Law School for review (to be held in strict confidence). If internal policies prohibit doing so, the field placement agrees that the Law School faculty supervisor may discuss the general nature and quality of the student's work with the student and the supervising faculty member.
23. The field placement agrees to call the supervising faculty member in the unlikely event that the student fails to report to work.
24. In accordance with the Department of Labor Fact Sheet #71, the field placement agrees that this experiential project is an educational experience and that the following apply: there is no expectation of compensation; the experiential project is similar to training which would be given in an educational environment; the experiential project is tied to the student's formal education program; the experiential project accommodates the student's academic commitments; the experiential project provides the student with beneficial learning; the student's work complements, rather than displaces, the work of paid employees while providing significant educational benefits to the student; and the experiential project is conducted without entitlement to a paid job at the conclusion.<sup>1</sup>
25. The field placement agrees not to bill for the student's work and time.
26. The field placement agrees to comply with the limits of the Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners Rules 321-322 regarding the authorized activities of certified legal interns.<sup>2</sup>
